Proclamation

WHEREAS, Tyler County is blessed to have hundreds of living veterans in our county. We pay tribute on this day to those dedicated veterans who have served this great nation with distinction both in peacetime and in war; and

WHEREAS, our county shares a continuing sense of gratitude to those who have given so much in the defense of the freedoms which we all continue to enjoy; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of our nation cherish the timeless principles upon which America was built, uphold confidence in our democratic institutions, and honor the brave men and women of the armed forces who have served with courage and devotion; and

WHEREAS, in honor of these dedicated men and women, who pledge their continued defense of our nation so that their sacrifice will stand before the entire world as a tribute to the spirit and determination of a people dedicated to the principles of freedom and democracy; and

WHEREAS, on this patriotic occasion, let us reaffirm our shared commitment to the principles and values that have guided and strengthened our nation since the founding of this great country - "One nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Milton Powers, County Judge of Tyler County and Tyler County Commissioners Court, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, November 11, 2026, as:

HONOR our VETERAN'S DAY, lest we forget.

I urge all our citizens to honor our veterans and rededicate ourselves to the preservation of our liberties under the Constitution by wearing an article of red clothing and thanking a veteran for their service to this great nation.

PROCLAIMED this 9th Day of November 2026
