

COUNTY JUDGE
MILTON POWERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tyler County, Texas - The Office of the County Judge is thrilled to announce that Spectrum's broadband expansion in Texas is bringing fast and reliable internet connections to rural homes and businesses in Tyler County.

This significant investment will greatly benefit our residents and local businesses, enhancing their ability to access essential services, educational resources, and economic opportunities. The improved internet connectivity will also support the growth and development of our local economy.

"We are extremely excited about the positive impact it will have on our community," said Milton Powers, Tyler County Judge. "We appreciate Spectrum's commitment to investing in rural Texas and look forward to the many benefits this will bring to our residents and businesses."

The expansion will provide fast and reliable internet connections to areas that have previously struggled with limited or no access to broadband services. This will enable residents to:

- Access online educational resources and remote learning opportunities
- Utilize telehealth services and access healthcare resources
- Enhance economic opportunities through e-commerce and online business development
- Stay connected with family, friends, and community through digital communication

The Tyler County Commissioner's Court would like to thank Spectrum for their investment in Tyler County and their commitment to bridging the digital divide in rural Texas.
