Budget Letter

Honorable Commissioners Court,

I respectfully submit the Fiscal Year 2027 Annual Budget for Tyler County. The budget being adopted by the Commissioners Court on Monday, September 8, 2026, complies with all statutory requirements and will serve as the financial and management control instrument for Tyler County from January 1, 2027 through December 31, 2027.

This budget was prepared during a year in which Tyler County has experienced substantial increases in inmate housing expenses, inmate medical care, and meal costs. In addition, we continue to face the same challenges affecting local governments across Texas: persistent inflation and unfunded state mandates.

Despite tremendous cost increases across the board, we have worked diligently to reduce expenditures wherever possible while maintaining the essential services our constituents expect and deserve. The General Fund accounts for the majority of operational expenditures for the year and reflects an increase from prior year budgeted levels.

Our Farm to Market / Flood Control Fund, County Special, has encountered similar financial pressures due to the rising cost of road materials required for maintenance and road projects. Balancing the priorities of Commissioners Court while addressing the needs of the County remains an ongoing effort.

Each day, we continue working to provide necessary services with limited resources. As Commissioners Court, we must plan specifically and purposefully. While this budget meets our current fiscal needs, we must continue working diligently toward our goal of reducing costs while providing necessary services to our community.

The teamwork demonstrated by our elected and appointed officials during this year's budget process directly contributed to the success of this budget. The continued impact of inflation and unfunded mandates was a major factor in its preparation. The County Auditor and I have worked closely with each member of the Court and other County Officials to develop strategies that lessen the financial impact on the 2027 budget while still addressing departmental needs.

I am confident that the implementation of the Step-Retention Plan will provide better forecasting for both our employees and our budget in years to come. With the continued rise in insurance premiums, fuel prices, and other services and expenses, I believe we have done a tremendous job balancing the 2027 budget. Our officials have shown a willingness to minimize the impact to the budget in every way possible.

It is an honor to serve alongside each of you. I appreciate the opportunity to serve Tyler County and look forward to working together to move our County forward and keep it a great place to live and work.

Respectfully submitted,

Texas County Government Overview

Functions of County Government

Today there are 254 counties serving the needs of over twenty million Texans--ranging in size from just under 200 residents to over 4 million. Major responsibilities include building and maintaining roads, recreational facilities and, in some cases, county airports; constructing and operating jails; operating the judicial system; maintaining public records; collecting property taxes; issuing vehicle registration and transfers; and registering voters. Counties also provide law enforcement, conduct elections, and provide health and social services to many indigent county residents. County governments are also playing a vital role in local economic development.

Structure of County Government

County government structure is spelled out in the Texas Constitution, which makes counties agents of the state. Thus, counties, unlike cities, are limited in their actions to areas of responsibility specifically spelled out in laws passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor. At the heart of each county is the Commissioners Court, which has four precinct Commissioners and a County Judge who serve on this court. This body conducts the general business of the county and oversees financial matters, plus, the Texas Constitution established a strong system of checks and balances by creating other elective offices in each county. The major elective offices found in most counties include County Attorneys, County and District Clerks, County Treasurers, Sheriffs, Tax Assessor Collectors, Justices of the Peace, and Constables. As a part of the checks and balances system, counties have Auditors appointed by the District Judges. While many county functions are administered by elected officials, others are run by the Commissioners Court. They include such departments as public health and human services, human resources, purchasing and budget, and, in some counties, public transportation and emergency medical services.

Structure of County Government

The origin of Texas county government can be found in "municipality," the local unit of government under Spanish and Mexican rule. The municipalities were large areas embracing one or more settlements and the surrounding rural territory. By 1821, there were four major Spanish settlements in Texas--San Antonio, Bahia (Collad), Nacogdoches, and the Rio Grand Valley--and three areas of light settlement and ranching and four major roads. Prior to Texas independence from Mexico, there were no political subdivisions at the county level. In 1835, Texas was divided into departments and municipalities. Three departments were established--Bexar, Brazos, and Nacogdoches--along with 23 municipalities under the new Republic established in 1836, the 23 municipalities became counties. When Texas became a state in 1845, there were 36 counties. Under the state Constitution of 1845, county government varied little from that found under the Republic. The only major change was the one that made all county offices elective positions. When Texas entered the Confederacy in 1861 and adopted a new state constitution, there were 122 counties. Ten years after reconstruction from the Civil War, the Constitution of 1876 was adopted. This constitution is still in effect, and contains much detail concerning the governmental organization of the Texas' counties. The number of counties increased steadily until the present number of 254 counties was reached in 1931.

Home of the Dogwood Festival

Tyler County Home of the Dogwood Festival

The Tyler County Dogwood Festival, the oldest outdoor historical pageant in the South, is a continuing tribute to its founder, James W. Wheat. It calls attention to the beauty of the area in story, pageant, and song. In the spring of 1938, when the dogwoods were in bloom, James E. Wheat arranged a meeting near the Polk and Tyler County line of a group of the state's leading citizens whose aid he hoped to enlist in promoting the completion of U.S. Highway 190. His guests, from other parts of the state, were so impressed with the natural beauty of East Texas that Jim Wheat hit upon the idea of an annual event which would focus attention on the area when "It's Dogwood Time in Tyler County". On the night of Saturday, April 6, 1940, the first Dogwood Festival was presented by some thirty people to an audience of 300 in a small amphitheater on the grounds of the Woodville school. From the day he had the idea until the day he died, Jim Wheat was President and major promoter of the project which he so ambitiously started. He was born, raised, and spent virtually all his life in Tyler County. He was a leader in his own community in school, municipal, church, and civic endeavors. In state and national circles, he reached the highest levels of success in the legal profession as Chairman of the Democratic Party in Texas, the first Chairman for the forerunner of the Texas Historical Commission, an early reformer of the Texas Prison System, and in other varied capacities. He received citations and accolades from all sides, yet he often stated that his greatest satisfaction was the success of the Tyler County Dogwood Festival. He liked to say in the bulletin each year that the festival indicates "what can be done in small towns where there is a spirit of good will and broadminded appreciation of the cultural and esthetic values of life which enables people to work together for the common good." That was Jim Wheat's "ethic", his "Citizens Creed". We are fondly reminded of it and of him each year when we realize that once again,

"It's Dogwood Time in Tyler County."
