To modify the balconies they could use draperies to close off the area which would cost approximately $1,000 or sheet rock which would cost less than $500 for the two balconies. Mr. Simpson further stated that he wanted to use this opportunity to explain the grants and job descriptions of an ISP Officer stating that the grant would provide literacy and vocational training to illiterate and eventually unemployed offenders. Therefore, this firm was her highest recommendation. She reported that Robbie Barnett said he would either supervise or perform the audit.
