Judge Owens opened the meeting for questions or comments concerning the proposed budget.

Elsie Stewart asked Commissioners' Court about getting another Home Economics Agent for Tyler County. Judge Owens answered stating that the County has not done away with that position and have continued to budget for that office. Bob Armentrout stated that the County must meet the level of funding which would be an increase of $680.00, before the position could be filled. After discussion as to the budget items that were increased, Commissioner Mahan suggested the Court proceed with the budget and that members of Commissioners' Court talk to a representative from A&M Extension to work this out.

Upon satisfaction that the budget was balanced, Commissioner Jordan motioned to adopt the 1991 Budget as prepared by the County Auditor and worked on by Commissioners' Court. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Mahan. All voted yes and none no. SEE ATTACHED BUDGET.

The tax rate is pro-rated as:

General Fund	.31
County Special (R&B)	2.01
Jail	.05
Hospital	.065

This cooperation delivers a message to taxpayers that funds were saved and handled efficiently, enabling more money to be spent on other projects and still not requesting additional money from taxpayers. A motion was made by Commissioner Mahan to leave the tax rate the same as last year at .595. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Riley. All voted yes and none no. Judge Owens asked for the record to show that there were five for and none against.

Commissioner Barnes made the motion to adjourn. Commissioner Riley seconded the motion. All voted yes.
