Commissioners' Court received a letter from the Chief-Appraiser advising there is a vacancy on the Tax Appraisal Review Board and requesting that we submit recommendations to the Board as to who we would wish to serve in this capacity. Commissioner Riley recommended Luther Moye, Commissioner Jordan recommended "Poodle" McInnis, Commissioner Barnes recommended Douglas Seamans, and Commissioner Mahan recommended James Handley. Kenny Simpson requested additional office space utilizing balconies of the District Courtroom. He presented a proposed cost of sheet rock walls and/or draperies for tentative approval. It was the consensus of the court for Mr. Simpson to proceed.

In discussion of the bids on the purchase of two new patrol cars for the Sheriff's Office, Sheriff Hennigan told Commissioners' Court that the price of the cars was a total of $26,216 with a separate price of $13,108 each. He also stated that the bid from Allison Chevrolet had a typographical error. Judge Owens requested a letter stating the error from Allison Chevrolet.
