COURT IN SESSION:

J.P. Wilson, landowner in Ivanhoe, met with the Court to discuss the condition of the roads in Ivanhoe. He indicated the hardships for school buses. He indicated the Ivanhoe Property Owners Assoc. did not recognize Sections 1 - 4 as part of their association. Mr. Wilson asked for assistance to get the roads in a passable condition. He added that the property owners paid county taxes and as far as he knew received no benefits from them.

Judge Owens responded that this was a legal matter and the Criminal District Attorney would have to research this matter and respond to the Court. Another property owner requested that the property owners be made aware of "what, if any thing, they would be entitled to" along with any aid they could get. He reported 3500 property owners in this section, with over 700 of those being permanent residents within Ivanhoe; additionally, he reported 52 miles of road in this subdivision.
